St Thomas's was able to offer a varied range of services over Advent and Christmas, all enhanced by the beautiful crib scene. Our covid measures were thoroughly effective. Dozens of people worked selflessly to make all this happen.

It is now becoming clear that the wider situation is changing. A rigorous lockdown is essential if the current crisis is to be controlled. People need to stay at home. For this reason, we have decided to suspend communal worship at St Thomas's for the time being. There will be no services in the church. This is a sad decision but we think a responsible one. The situation will be kept under review.

Online services at 10.15am on Sundays and online reflections from the clergy will continue and can be found on the website.

Please continue to pray for each other and to keep in touch.
