Hymn:

Today is Battle of Britain Sunday. We extend a very warm welcome to members of the Royal Air Force Association and Air Crew Association who will be worshipping with us at the 10.15 service.

Leonard Coller would like to say a big “thank you” to all his friends at St Thomas’s who sang to him on his birthday last Sunday. It made his day!

A Note from Jonathan Plows: May I take this opportunity to thank everyone for all their prayers, support and best wishes for my ordination. The Ordination Service is in the Cathedral on Saturday 29th September at 11.00am. It would be wonderful to see you all there but be warned the Cathedral will be full and so an early arrival (e.g. 10.00am) is highly recommended. It will be a wonderful service.

Harvest Lunch Sunday 7 October: A poster at the back of church gives more details of this, including the menu and price. Sign up today to avoid disappointment, as numbers have to be limited.

The Communication Committee is hoping to produce a Welcome Pack for newcomers. If there is anyone in the congregation who has a talent for graphic design and would be interested in working with us, we would love to chat to you. Please talk to Jenny Vokes, Pat Inglis or Fi Green. Thank you.

Toddlers’ Group: Michael McHugh is hoping to start a group for toddlers (and their grown-ups!) next month. He needs volunteers (two or three for each meeting) to help with setting up, welcoming, providing refreshments and clearing up. Have a word with him today, or phone him on 414 637 to volunteer or find out more.

Are you a newcomer to St Thomas’s? You might have been worshipping here for months, but if you haven’t been given a “welcome” leaflet we probably don’t have you on our Christmas card list! Please speak to one of the Churchwardens or Sidespeople if you think we might have missed you.

Further copies of last week’s flier for the Adult Education group are available at the back of the church for those who may have missed the launch. Your attention is particularly drawn to the following:

Sharing and Reflection Groups Fiona Hulbert and Tim Price are each hosting small groups to meet in their homes in Salisbury. By participants sharing and reflecting on their spiritual journeys each may in turn be enriched. Contact Fiona (Tel. 328927) and Tim (411655) for further information. Initial meetings are 2nd October (Tim) 4th October (Fiona).

Bible Study Jonathan Plows is leading an open meeting on Saturday 22nd September at 10.30 am in St. Thomas's House. This is for anyone interested in agreeing areas of Bible Study and details of times and places. Contact Jonathan (331467).

Readers’ Group Robina Hattersley is hosting four meetings in her home to study and discuss Re-pitching The Tent by Richard Giles. The objective is for participants to understand more what "reordering the church" means in general and how it might relate to St. Thomas 's in particular. The meetings are on 8th, 15th, 22nd and 29th November at 5.45 for 6.00 pm, and will last an hour each. Contact Robina (322212) to book a place.

Learning for Discipleship several different courses offered by the Diocese will start soon. There should be some leaflets at the back of church, or details from The Rev'd David Heslop at Church House, phone 411944 or email davidheslop@salisbury.anglican.org more notices on the back of the processional hymn!
