Exciting news!! More details to follow once we have had the official report but St Thomas's have just gained their second Eco-Congregation award! Congratulations to all of us and keep those eco habits growing!! In celebration of this please join us for coffee after Church on June 15th in St Thomas's House Garden when the sun will shine in recognition of Environment Sunday and you can enjoy the garden in all its splendour!

CORRECTION: John Blake's new phone number is 349302 and not as printed previously. If you need his address, please contact him on this number, or speak to Kate in the office.

Get your rounders bats out! There will be a "three churches picnic" (SMC, the URC and us) at Old Sarum on Sunday 15th June. Put the date in your diary – more details will follow soon. (Rounders is not compulsory) (The Churchwardens might try hard to persuade you to join in, though!)

Lorraine Blakey and friends will be giving a concert here on Sat 14th June in aid of the Salisbury Community Band instrument fund. Lots of St T's musicians involved – come and support them!

For diaries, a Holiday Club, July 29th-31st, for Primary Age[ish] Children. The Noah Planning Group are looking for a flood of volunteers to commit now for boarding card check in, crew management, piloting through troubled waters etc. If you can offer some time, please contact Michael on 414637 or email mtmch@hotmail.com

Date for your diary: Garden Party in aid of the Children's Society from 2.00 - 5.00 pm on Saturday 14th June at the South Canonry in the Close, (by kind permission of the Bishop and Mrs Stancliffe). Come and enjoy a variety of stalls, displays and refreshments, all in the beautiful riverside garden. Contributions of cakes, biscuits etc for the produce stall or the teas would be welcome, as would volunteers to help with looking after a stall or two, or doing some tea pouring - see Sally Vaughan if you can help.

Fire stewards are needed for Salisbury Festival Concerts here on Tues 3rd and Thurs 5th June, and for Lorraine Blakey's concert on Sat 14th. Volunteer to Lyndall for any or all!

If you would like to contribute to a "thank you" gift for Nicholas Bray please give your donation to Julie Scott in person, or in a labelled envelope in the safe in the back of church.

Margaret and Elizabeth Curtis wish to thank all their friends at St Thomas's for the letters, cards and telephone calls in their recent sad loss of Ken. We have been overwhelmed by your kindness and prayers which really have sustained us through this difficult time. Our thanks also to the choir who sang at the the funeral – Ken would have been delighted. Our sincere thanks to you all.

Mothers' Union: There are two events this week, first a Quiet Day on Wednesday at the home of the Archdeacon, Ven Alan Jeans, Herbert House, Lower Bemerton, 10.15 – 2.30, bring a Bible and a packed lunch. Second, our regular Thursday afternoon meeting on 5th June, 2.30pm in St Thomas's House. Bridget Trump, our Diocesan President, will be the speaker (a change to previously published arrangements).

A date for the summer: Sunday 13th July, Bishop and Mrs Stancliffe's Garden Party in aid of the Salisbury/Sudan Medical Link. Stuart and Marlene Lucas will be running a bottle stall again this year as part of St Thomas's effort – more details later.

Saturday June 7th - please come and have a cup of coffee (filter available) and a cake with the Communications Committee. We are raising funds for the Magazine which comes out in July.

Our Bookstall stock is getting low! Please could you have a 'sort out' of your bookcases/shelves and let us have your unwanted volumes, it would be much appreciated. You can either leave them on the pew next to the Bookstall, or give me a ring on 01722 335615 to arrange collection. Many Thanks, Geoff Bishop.

Diary date. Choir members Lorraine and Robert Blakey will be featured soloists in a concert by Salisbury String Orchestra to raise money for the Mayor's Appeal at 7.30pm on Tuesday 3rd June at Salisbury Methodist Church. Programme includes works by Pergolesi, Handel, Corelli, Mozart and Janacek. No admission charge, but retiring collection in aid of the Appeal.
